

Schedule of Events

Wednesday, March 4, 2015

- 12:00 - 1:00 pm Registration
- 1:00 - 1:30 pm Welcome
Bo Reagan, Chairman
International Stockmen's Educational Foundation
Texas Welcome
Joel Cowley, President and Chief Executive Officer, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™
Jack Lyons, Chairman of the Board, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™

Opening Session: *Can Animal Protein be Produced in Safe/Fair/Sustainable Production Systems?

Moderator: Jason Sawyer, Texas A&M University

- 1:30 - 2:30 pm A New Global Alliance for a Safer/Fairer/Sustainable Livestock Sector
Bernerd Vallat, World Health Organization for Animal Health
- 2:30 - 3:30 pm Panel Discussion: Global Production and Consumption of Animal Protein
Moderator: Kevin Ochsner, Agcellerate
Francois LeGall, World Bank
Jimmy Smith, International Livestock Research Institute
Bruce Feinberg, McDonald's Corporation
Hsin Huang, International Meat Secretariat
- 3:30 - 4:00 pm Break/Networking
- 4:00 - 5:00 pm Student Introductions
David Waggoner, International Stockmen's Educational Foundation
- 6:00 - 9:00 pm International Committee Reception

Thursday, March 5, 2015

- 7:00 - 8:00 am Continental Breakfast

Morning Session

Moderator: Mitch Bowlin, US Dairy Export Council

- 8:00 - 9:00 am Should We Use Technology to Provide Animal Protein for World Consumption
Todd Armstrong, Elanco
- 9:00 - 10:00 am Cattle and Beef Opportunities of the Future
Gary Smith, Texas A&M University

Schedule of Events

10:00 - 10:30 am Break/Networking

10:30 am - Livestock Production Systems (Panel)

12:00 pm

Moderator: John Paterson, NCBA

Livestock Production in Africa, Jimmy Smith, ILRI

Livestock Production in Mexico, Enrique Lopez, Cattle Fatteners

Association-AMEG

Beef Production in China, Joel Haggard, USMEF

12:00 - 1:30 pm Lunch - Student and Alumni Recognition

Meet Today's Students from Around the World

Leann Saunders, Where Food Comes From, Inc.

David Waggoner, International Stockmen's Educational Foundation

Afternoon Concurrent Sessions: Global Production of Animal Protein

Attendees may choose to attend one of two presentations during each time period.

	Room 1	Room 1
1:30 - 2:20 pm	D	E
2:30 - 3:20 pm	A	F
3:40 - 4:30 pm	C	B
4:40 - 5:30 pm	G	H

(A) Beef in the Diet - Bad Rap and What to do About it!

Shalene McNeill, National Cattlemen's Beef Association

(B) Are There International Markets for All Kinds of Beef?

Leann Saunders, Where Food Comes From, Inc.

(C) The Future of Agriculture in a Global Market

Paul Genho, Farm Management Co.

(D) Beef Quality/Safety/Sustainability in US Feedlots

Paul Defoor, Cactus Feeders

(E) Global Animal Protein Production Health Concerns

Subhash Morzaria, FAO Consultant/Animal Health and Infectious Diseases

Specialist

(F) Will Salmonella Ever be Treated as E.coli O157:H? Should it?

Mohammad Koochmaraie, IEH Consulting

(G) Antibiotic Resistance Issues and Solutions Facing the Beef Industry

H. Morgan Scott, Texas A&M University

(H) Mandatory vs. Voluntary Animal Tracking Systems

John Clifford, CVO, USDA

5:30 pm

Closing

John Paterson, NCBA

6:30 pm

Night at the Rodeo